

Lift up your hands to the holy place and bless the Lord! Psalm 134:2

*For I am the Lord your God who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, Do not fear; I will help you.
Isaiah 41:13*

Genesis 1:27

Parent Partners

This week we learned that God made our hands. Point out your hands and the different things they can do. Sing (to the tune of The Farmer in the Dell):

*God made my hands.
God made my hands.
I'm so happy, very happy,
God made my hands.*

Spiritual Growth

Your child's first experience of love comes from you. Show him or her God's love through your actions.

- 0-12 Months—Shower your child with affection via hugs, kisses, and endearing words.
- 12-24 Months—Shower your child with affection via hugs, kisses, and endearing words.

God Made My Hands. God made the human hand to be different from those of animals, as we have fingers and a thumb that work together to help us grab, hold, and do things. Not only do our hands help us do what we need, they help us stay safe, show love and communicate. Our parents hold our hands to keep us safe, we can gently reach out to show love to our families and our pets. We can use our hands to play music, paint a picture or write our name. We can lift our hands to the Lord when we sing His praises, and fold them tightly together when we pray. We feed, wash and dress ourselves with our hands, use them to wave to our friends, and clap at things that make us happy.

This week when we sing If You're Happy & You Know It Clap Your Hands, clap them super loud and think about the sound they make when they come together. Then remember to stomp your feet, shout AMEN, and do all three.

Love you all, miss you every day, and look forward to when we all see each other again.
